

MAKING FOOD GAINING SKILLS

Are you interested in learning cooking skills from an experienced professional chef? Would you like the opportunity to gain recognised qualifications? This course would be perfect for you.

Over 6 weeks you could be one of the learners being trained in our newly fitted kitchen. The course will include cooking techniques used in a wide variety of hospitality settings that will give you the skills, qualifications and confidence to apply for many different jobs.

These courses are free for anyone seeking work or in receipt of benefits.

Dates:	17 January – 10 February
Time:	10am – 2.00pm, Monday and Thursday
Location:	The Bognor Makerspace, 58-60 Longford Road, Bognor PO21 1AG

Participants will also benefit from on-going support in their search for employment and can access learning opportunities after the course has ended.

Previous experience is not required, anyone is welcome but numbers are limited. Contact us direct to find out more and to reserve a place. You can call 01243 345239 and leave a message (we will call you back) or email learn@makingtheatre.co.uk
Courses will also run in February, March and April.
